

Aerial View of Red Hill Bay Restoration Site

---

The US Fish and Wildlife Service, in partnership with the Imperial Irrigation District, intends to restore the habitat values of the Red Hill Bay with blended water from the Salton Sea and nearby drain water from the Alamo River.

Red Hill Bay is located on the southeast shore of the Salton Sea and is part of the Sonny Bono Salton Sea National Wildlife Refuge.